Wonder if they saw my pond picture from yesterday? And yes, we're an environmental enforcement agency. Whether it's climate change or sewage in the Blackstone or a foolish decision from DPUC that we need to sue to fix, we'll continue to take decisive action on behalf of RI'ers.

Big win in the Supreme Court today confirming that our case against big oil for lying to RI'ers about climate change belongs in state, not federal court. So another delaying tactic by big oil goes by the boards. Let's put this case before a RI state jury and let them decide.

You don't get paid to Tweet, Peter Neronha. If you spent as much time doing your job as you do on Twitter, #RhodeIsland would be better for it.
